

OUR VISION

Current Words exists as an alternative publisher for authors. Our goal is to help bring quality manuscripts to completion and, ultimately, publication.

We are proud members of the Independent Book Publisher's Association. Unlike vanity press companies that will accept any and every manuscript at their door, we review each potential client's work closely and will provide honest feedback to let you know whether your title is a good fit for us, and whether we're a good fit for you.

Our long-term vision is to build a strong list of talented and diverse authors who seek a reliable and trustworthy publishing partner. We've worked with dozens of authors and are here to help you find the success you deserve.

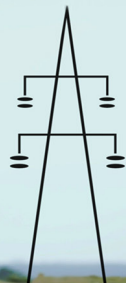

OUR COMMITMENT TO YOU

From our first chat to getting your work into print and beyond, we're fully invested in each author partner.

YOU'RE IN CONTROL

Unlike many publishers, we're not here to rewrite your work. We'll professionally edit your manuscript, but you retain control and decide what to accept and what to reject. We'll design your book's cover based on your input. What's more, you retain 100 percent of royalties on every copy sold.
